$10,000 COUNTRY HOME BURNS

Greensburg, Ind., Feb. 13.—The country home of Jesse G. Donnell, one of the finest in the county, north of Greensburg, was destroyed by fire late yesterday. The loss is estimated at about $10,000 partially covered by insurance. The fire started while men were thawing frozen water pipes and it is believed that the flame from a blow torch caught an old bird's nest. The flames spread rapidly and when neighbors arrived the entire lower floor was ablaze. However, some of the furniture downstairs was saved. Mr. Donnell was removed to the home of a neighbor after suffering a complete collapse.

"The Pasing Show of 1916" the Winter Garden's annual out-burst of travesty, music, extravaganza, comedy and girls will begin its annual engagement at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis the week of February 19th, continuing through the entire week with matinees Wednesday, Thursday (Washington's Birthday) and Saturday. This will be the fifth Pasing Show to delight, surprise, astound the theatre-goers of this city. With each show it seemed that the limit of business had been reached; that the extent of lavishness of the production had been reached; that spectacle had arrived at the summit of spectacular extravaganza; that having assembled the talent for the last show there was nothing left, the whole field having been raked as with a harrow. Then a new show came along and it was discovered that the last one was only the beginning of another big mobilization of spectacular surprises and consummate cleverness. Each of these shows has had along with various spectacular wonders, one big melodramatic smash. Memory carries us back to the Capitol steps in the Passing Show of 1913; the Transcontinental flying machine in mid-season in the 1914 show the destruction of a city during a Zeppelin raid came last season and now in the Passing Show of 1916 we are to have the biggest and most astounding spectacular feature yet seen on the American or any other stage, the charge of the U. S. Cavalry on the Mexican Border. As a thriller, this thrilling outthrills all thrillers. It out Wintergardens the Winter Garden. And the company to appear in this mastodon of musical extravaganza is the most surprising collection of talent that has been assembled for any Passing Show. Ed Wynn heads the list of comedians. Ed Wynn has made a great success in this new show. His garage scene is said to be the most hilarious travesty that has been seen in any Winter Garden Show. Then there is Belle Ashlyn, a comedienne with an extraordinary sense of the comic. But the list is too long to specialize as to each member. One can only state that there will be Fred Walton, Mabel Dora Ford, the wonderful dancers, Augusta Dean, Herman Timberg, Philbrick and Mack, William Arnold, Stella Hoban, James Clemens, Ma-Belle, the dancer; the five Violin Beauties, Elida Morris, Pearl Easton, and Vera Roehm. This does not take into account the 125 dainty dimpled divinities on the electric elevated runway. The show is a

Thomas A. Edison Wants You To Hear This Test

TONIGHT at 8:15---United Presbyterian Church

Many famous artists have made these "Tone Tests." Read what the papers say:

"Impossible to distinguish between the singer's living voice and its re-creation by the instrument that bears the stamp of Edison's genius."
Boston Herald Nov. 19th, 1915.

"The ear could not tell when it was listening to the phonograph alone. Only the eye could discover the truth by noting when the singer's mouth was open or closed."
N. Y. Evening Mail, May 3d, 1916.

It was virtually impossible to distinguish between the real voice and the Re-Created voice of the singer."
Philadelphia Evening Telegram, April 28th, 1916.

"Christine Miller herself and Christine Miller on the Edison sang side by side. The two voices were so identical that when one or the other stopped it was impossible to detect it in the audience."
Cleveland Leader, Sept. 23d, 1915.

"Not possible to tell one from the other."
Detroit Free Press, Oct. 12th, 1915.

Music's re-creation! A reproduction of the human voice from the phonograph which the ear cannot distinguish from the living voice! Has Mr. Edison accomplished this miracle at last? Come—hear this astonishing test—and judge.

Miss Helen Clark, the popular concert Contralto will be here, at Mr. Edison's request, to offer you the only evidence by which you can really judge. She will sing side by side with Mr. Edison's re-creation of her voice! See if you can tell, without watching the motion of Miss Clark's lips, which is the living voice and which the re-creation.

What Is Your Judgment?

Mr. Edison insists upon this unique and daring test. For it tells more than the most vivid words can express. Its convincing frankness sweeps away all doubt. Mr. Edison wants your true judgment of his new musical art. He wants the judgment of every music lover. Has he re-created music? Has he eliminated all mechanical blemish? Has he preserved the living tones in all their reality?

He puts the original and his re-creation before you—side by side. He hides nothing. Asks no allowances. He dares to make the vital test that no one else but he has ever ventured. And he asks you to decide.

Call or Write for Complimentary Tickets

We want all music lovers in this community to hear this interesting and convincing test. Complimentary tickets will be distributed to those who apply in person at our store or by mail. You and your friends are urged to attend. Mr. Edison recommends that children under three years of age be not admitted as they do not realize that they can mar the intent of this recital by crying or talking. We advise you to apply early before all tickets are exhausted.

DID YOU EVER SEE A CAT STRIKE?

Sleepy old cat lying by a rat hole. Lazy, half asleep—then biff! Say, if you could strike as quick and hard as that you could make Jess Willard look sick! Why don't you let your tired body muscles sleep until the right moment—and then—biff! It's all in being able to relax.

One of the greatest aids ever given to man for soothing tired muscles, overworked muscles, is Speedway Liniment. It goes right in through the skin and relieves those sore, overworked ligaments. It's soothing—restful—and wonderfully upbuilding. Trouble with most people is that there are too many little biffs, little throbs, little aches that we don't take care of and soon the muscles lose their pep and comeback. Try Speedway Liniment. Put it on full strength with a good brisk, rub. It does not blister—nor stain—nor injure the most delicate fabric. Pleasant to use as toilet water. Relieves neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains, bruises, soreness anywhere. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes at Hargrove & Mullin and F. B. Johnson & Co. Just try it.—(Adv.)

America First.

It is enough to arouse the patriotism of the average American to read the resounding statement of George Sylvester Viereck, editor of The Fatherland, in the current issue. It expresses a fine sentiment and is worth consideration of the American who prides himself on his Americanism, because it will make his faith in his country stronger. Incidentally Mr. Viereck announced the change in the name of The Fatherland to The New World. Read what he has to say:

Beginning with this number, The Fatherland will be known as The New World. We shall attempt to serve our readers under the new name as well as under the old, adopting as our slogan the words of Carl Schurz: "My Country, right or wrong: if right to be kept right; if wrong, to be set right."

The Fatherland has always emphasized that it is an American publication. Its original name was adopted as a graceful tribute to the country of our fathers. Our Fatherland is America. The change of name implies no change of heart. We have considered a change of name many times in the past. We are making the change now to avoid misunderstanding.

We shall retain our independence of judgment. We do not believe that we forfeit our right of free speech, because we are Americans of German descent, even in case of war between the United States and Germany. But we desire to avoid unnecessary provocation.

In Germany a publication named uncle Sam would not be popular at present. A publication named The Fatherland may seem objectionable to many, especially to Americans of German descent who desire to emphasize that their allegiance is to America solely. We want to stress the fact that America is our country, not merely the country of those whose progenitors came with the Pilgrim Fathers. We are the heirs of the New World and the Old.

The New World is not the mouthpiece merely of the German Americans, but of all Americans who believe in maintaining the Declaration of Independence, and who, remembering the advice of George Washington, abhor an entangling alliance with the ancient enemy of the United States. Between England and Germany, we are for Germany against Russia, Japan, France, Serbia, Montenegro, Belgium, Portugal, Italy and Roumania. Between America and Germany, or between America and any other land, we are for America always.

We cannot champion Germany's cause if our country is at odds with Germany. Fortunately we are not yet embroiled in the war. We trust that President Wilson will be able to maintain peace. We know that he can maintain peace, if he demands of both belligerents alike strict observance of the Declaration of London.

Whatever happens, we shall continue to contend for peace. We shall attempt to combat the menace of racial dissension. We shall stand for Fair-Play for all. We shall oppose with unflinching determination those disloyal Americans who would make our country the catspaw of Great Britain. May the spirit of Carl Schurz whom we invoke in our motto to guide the destiny of our Country!

Some day we will open up our heart and tell the world how much the people love you. But it will be after you are dead.

We just can't refrain from mentioning Carranza again, but he is worth only a line or two at best.

HOOSIER PESTS.

BY R. E. SNODGRASS. Assistant State Entomologist. (By United Press.)

The hen has her entomological troubles as well as persons. Her person if afflicted with hordes of crawling creatures that disport themselves over her body. While they perhaps do no physical harm, they cause the hen much annoyance and reduce her vitality which, in turn, lessens her egg producing powers.

These parasites are small, flat-bodied insects called chicken lice. Unlike regular lice, they do not suck the blood of their victims. They have a pair of biting jaws like a grass hoppers' and feed on the feathers and hairs. The eggs are attached to the base of the feather.

A simple and effective remedy for chicken lice is blue ointment—a preparation containing mercury sold in drug stores. A small amount—the size of a pea is rubbed into the skin of the birds beneath the wing or below the vent—the latter location is the best. The lice travel rapidly over the body, soon find the ointment, eat it and die. Many tests have been made and it said this treatment, will rid a chicken of the pests in a few days and remain effective for several months, getting the young lice as they hatch from the eggs.

Do not neglect the roosters because the parasites can migrate from one bird to another. Discard the common remedy of sulphur and lard. Sulphur burns the skin and may cause the death of young birds. Another class of chicken pests is the mite. The mite lives and breed in chicken houses and may be controlled by spraying with some substance such as carbolenium.

WOULD NEED MONEY.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—In case a call for troops is issued by the United States government, one of the first official acts toward the mobilization of Indiana men would be to ask an extra appropriation from the legislature to care for the work, according to Adj. Gen. Harry B. Smith. The ways and means committee will be asked for the regular biennial appropriation of $200,000 for the guard and all extra funds needed for immediate mobilization.

There will be a penny supper in the basement of the Christian church on Friday February 16th. Supper served from 5 to 7. 285t5.

OFFICIALS LEAD ATTACK ON BILL

Those Who Would be Out of a Job if Billed is Passed Kick on Conservation.

IS BACKED BY GOVERNOR

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Senator Wolfson's bill providing for the creation of a state conservation commission to take over the work of several state departments, is the target for attacks by many state officials whose jobs it would abolish. The bill is backed by Gov. Goodrich.

Heads of several departments which would be abolished by the measure stated to the United Press today that the bill would be opposed by the democrats and several republicans in the senate to insure by measure's defeat in the upper house of the legislature. Democrats will probably oppose the bill.

Senator Wolfson, who is chairman of the committee which has the measure under consideration, stated that he was holding it back until he believed an opportune time had arrived to present it to the senate. Democratic members of the senate recently started a move to take the bill from the committee and kill it but this scheme was abandoned for the time at least.

WANT PRISON MOVED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—The prison committee of the senate will hold a public hearing tonight on the bill introduced by Senator Spann to move the State Women's prison from its present location in Indianapolis to a site within fifty miles of the city.

The prison is now located close to the Winona institute and officials of the institute believe the prison should be moved. The property on which it is located is very valuable.

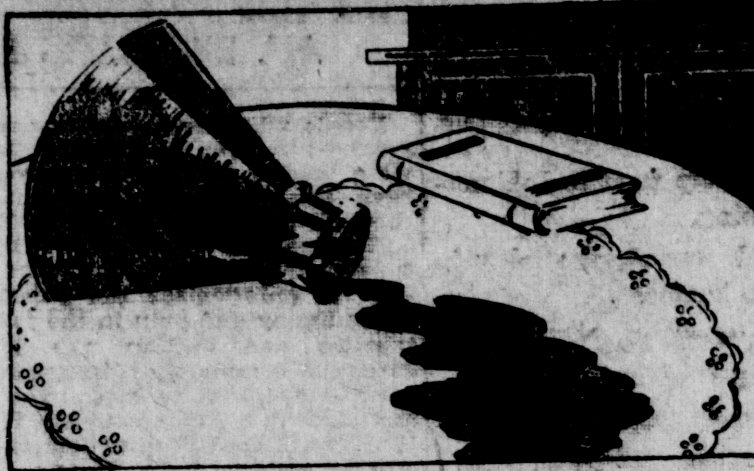

THE FREAK BILL BOARD

- Colorado—To provide that bulls out walking at night shall wear tail lights.

STOMACH SYMPTOMS

A leading physician of Chicago says: "Merely easing the pain with narcotics to give relief is a long way from cure for stomach trouble. Besides the danger of neglect or inadequate treatment may lead to more serious maladies. What appear to be only minor troubles are often the symptoms of gall stones, acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, auto-intoxication, yellow jaundice, appendicitis, cancer and ulcers of the stomach and intestines, or other fatal ailments." Stomach sufferers should take warning. Do not have blind faith in treatment that are giving no results. Much suffering could be avoided, many surgical operations prevented, scores of lives saved had Mayr's Wonderful Remedy been taken in time. It is not a long drawn out treatment. It acts on the very source and foundation of stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, eliminating from the system the hard, poisonous catarrhal accretions and shows them to you. Try a dose tonight—tomorrow your days of torture will be over and another friend will be added to nearly a million grateful human beings, many who declare Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has saved their life. Get it from your druggist today—tomorrow may be too late. For sale by Frank E. Wolcott and druggists everywhere.—(Adv.)

Too Bad, But---

Yes, it is too bad the ink was spilled on that pretty centerpiece, and it would be equally bad to have it spilled on the table cloth or on a garment. But it is not so serious as it would have been if you didn't have a first-class cleaning establishment to take it to.

A spot such as this doesn't worry our workers in the least. They know how to take it out and make the article, apparently ruined, look like new.

Bring the results of your ink accident to us. Ours is a first aid establishment in cases of this character.

Not only ink accidents, but any kind of a stain, we will do our best, and can nearly always remove them. Try us next time and see.

FRIENDS IN ANY HOME, HE SAYS

J. M. Benton Has First Faith in Tanlac—Relates Own Experience.

Elkhart, Ind., Feb. 12.—"Tanlac will make friends in any home in which it goes," was the opinion expressed here on December 6 by J. M. Benton, or 675 Strong avenue, this city.

Mr. Benton then told how the Master Medicine made friends in his home. After considering his case almost hopeless, he said that Tanlac went straight to the seat of his trouble and has benefited him greatly.

"I thought I never would be any better," Mr. Benton said. "I had rheumatism, severe pains in my limbs, especially in damp weather bothering me. At night I simply suffered agonies. Of course, I didn't sleep very much because of the pains and would just toss and roll about the bed.

"Friends told me about Tanlac and recommended it so highly that I decided to try it. I sleep soundly and peacefully all through the night now and, in fact, have been benefited in every respect.

"I gladly recommend Tanlac to all who are bothered with rheumatism as I was for several years."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is a blood purifier and system cleanser without a superior. It is, therefore, a fine remedy for rheumatism. Tanlac also is excellent for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness and the like.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store; in normal-mhvaia -Hh Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons and in Milroy at Barton and Sheppards.—(Adv.)

WILL EQUIP 20 AIR SQUADRONS

Canada Plans to Organize and Train Men This Coming Spring—England Backs Move.

360 MACHINES ARE REQUIRED

Some Will be Able to Carry Three and One-half Tons of Bombs and 3-inch Guns.

By GEORGE MARTIN (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Feb. 13.—Twenty reserve aero squadrons will be organized, trained and equipped for the British Royal Flying Corps by the Canadian government this spring. The announcement was made today to the Aero Club of America by the Aero Club of Canada, of which Col. V. Hamilton Merritt is president.

The aviation training schools being established in Canada to train the aviators are under the control of the imperial Army authorities. The Munitions Board has charge of having constructed the 360 training aeroplanes and aviators in the Dominion.

As in the case of the United States he number of men anxious to join the Air Service is large. The waiting list numbers thousands, and the raining will begin on a large scale early in the spring. Candidates for the air service must be from 19 to 25.

The Aero Club of Canada at Toronto will assist in securing and raining the aviators.

According to reliable reports from England, the British Government has pent $250,000,000 for the air service in the last twelve months, in building up the Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Naval Air Service. There are about 12,000 aviators in the two services.

Henry Woodhouse, a member of the Board of Governors of the Aero Club of America, today said:

"The employment of aeroplanes in the present war is now general. Aeroplanes are used in cavalry, infantry and artillery, reconnoitering, bombing, observing artillery fire, photographing the enemy's position, and the like.

There are aeroplanes which carry 1 1/2 tons of bombs, guns and munitions. Some of these mount three-inch guns, which make them literally flying artillery. These aeroplanes are used to attack trains, ships and bodies of troops. Operations are being extended more and more, and here is no doubt that the war is to end in the air.

"Other countries are also greatly expanding their air services, and many countries are looking toward the United States to supply the aeroplanes and motors—principally the latter.

"They want large, high, horsepower motors in large quantities. Fortunately, American aeroplane motors are now as good as the very best European motors, and there are 17 different types of motors upwards of 150 H. P., being developed in the United States today.

"A number of these motors are being shown at the First Pan American Aeronautic Exposition at the Grand Central Palace from February 8th to 15th."

ASKS $1 A DAY FOR EXPENSE

Representative Jinnett yesterday introduced a bill providing for a salary of $2 a day and traveling expenses of $1 a day for attendance officers. The present salary is $2 a day but there is no allowance for traveling expenses. The additional money for traveling expenses provided in the bill would be paid only when the attendance officers worked. The attendance officers of the state are back of the bill.

Indicts Booze In Poem Written While In Jail

Gordon Bennett, who is spending eleven days in jail, finds the time passes slowly and has taken to writing poetry. The one he handed Sheriff Cavitt yesterday was written before Bennett was arraigned and it shows clearly that he was expecting a trip to the penal farm. The "poem" follows:

At last that I'm in jail again,
I'll describe my thoughts with this old pen.

I think of Bebout as in days of yore
When he gave me 25 days with a promise of more.

As I sit here I think of the penal farm,
And wonder if there I'll do any harm.

My partner's been there, and wore the yoke,
With 680 days, and that's no joke.

So I guess that its now my turn next
With the penal farm as my future text.

It may hurt some, but as for me
I don't like to see those "bootleggers" go free.

The stuff they sell, I'll call it "skee."
God never meant it for you and me.

Its hard to take—you'll climb a tree.
The brand I mean, is "Bonnie Dundee."

It wounds the nerve, and numbs the brain,
And would make a fellow jump in front of a train.

But still we drink it, I don't know why
And will continue to do so until the state goes "dry."

So now I'll bid you a pleasant adieu,
And hope it will be a lesson to you.

I've nothing more to say before I snooze
Only to stay away from that "rot gut" booze.

Whether or not the family meal is healthful for children depends not only on the food materials selected but also on the way in which they are cooked. Simple methods are to be preferred from the standpoint of health as well as from that of the housekeeper's time. All dishes that are likely to contain overheated and scorched fats, such as food carelessly fried in a pan in a small amount of fat should be avoided. Deep-fat frying is open to fewer objections, since, if properly done, foods will absorb little fat and the fat will not scorch. Vegetables cooked in water or in their own juices and seasoned with salt and a little butter or cream are easier to prepare than those that are served with white sauce, scalloped, or cooked in other elaborate ways.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR TOURNAMENT

Athletic Directors of Indiana and DePauw Universities Will Officiate Here February 24

EIGHT SCHOOLS ENTERED

Plans for the basketball tournament to be held here Friday 24 have been completed. Prof. Masters received word that Egbert Buss, athletic director of DePauw university will assist Ewald O. Stiehm of Indiana university in officiating at the games. Stiehm's presence had been assured sometime ago but the other official was not certain. With these two prominent athletic directors refereeing the games the contests should move along in an orderly manner.

Rushville is out to win the tournament, having already defeated all of the teams entered. The schools coming for the tournament are Shelbyville, Greensburg, Newcastle, New-Palestine, Milroy, Morristown, and Connersville.

The local team is working hard this week in preparation for the game here Friday night with Brookville.

HINTS FOR THE NOON MEAL FOR CHILDREN.

There is no reason why the ordinary family dinner should not be suitable for school children or served in a way that adapts it to their needs, according to Farmers' Bulletin 712, School Lunches. The usual first course of meat and vegetables, contains nothing except the meat, which can not be given even to the youngest children. The vegetables, provided they are carefully prepared by simple methods, are specially needed and can often be made attractive to children by being served with a little meat gravy. As a substitute for the meat itself, milk can be provided in the case of the younger children. These articles with the bread and butter, provide most of the food needed.

The dessert course it suitable for children as well as for grown people, unless it consists of rich pastries or puddings. The latter are not considered wholesome for children, if for no other reason than that they are likely to lead to overeating. Such dessert as fruit, fresh or cooked, with cake; cereals with milk or cream, and sugar; custards and custard puddings; gelatin dishes; simple ice cream; water ices and other simple dessert may be given.

Whether or not the family meal is healthful for children depends not only on the food materials selected but also on the way in which they are cooked. Simple methods are to be preferred from the standpoint of health as well as from that of the housekeeper's time. All dishes that are likely to contain overheated and scorched fats, such as food carelessly fried in a pan in a small amount of fat should be avoided. Deep-fat frying is open to fewer objections, since, if properly done, foods will absorb little fat and the fat will not scorch. Vegetables cooked in water or in their own juices and seasoned with salt and a little butter or cream are easier to prepare than those that are served with white sauce, scalloped, or cooked in other elaborate ways.

What is said above applies equally to the meals. There is, however, one special precaution that applies to the noon meal when it is hurried. This refers to tough hard foods that are likely to escape proper mastication. It is a mistake to think that the foods given to children must always be soft or finely divided. For children's teeth need exercise quite as much as their muscles do. When time for eating is limited, however, it is well to omit foods that are difficult to chew, and in extreme cases it may be necessary to serve only soft or finely divided foods—sandwiches made from crustless bread with finely chopped fillings, for example. Before resorting to this, however, it is well to make sure that the time for eating and for insistence on good table manners is not unnecessarily cut short. The advantage of putting the meal on the table promptly and of having foods served in individual portions, or at least ready to eat when they are brought to the table, should be kept in mind. To have the meat already sliced and the dessert in cups instead of in one large dish from which individual portions must be served and to follow the same general plan with other foods, may change a hurried meal into one at which there is plenty of time for attention to details essential to health and good manners.

ANOTHER SNOW IS COMING

The temperature went up to thirty-five above today and offered some relief from the severe cold weather of the last few days, but the weather man dashed any prospects of continued moderate weather by the announcement of unsettled conditions tomorrow. Snow is predicted for this section of the state. The air was damp today and chilled pedestrians. The sun shined brightly this afternoon for the most part but it was cloudy in Rushville the greater part of the day.

SAYS FAMILY LIVED HERE

Ewing, Ind., Woman Inquires About Lefflers Here 33 Years Ago

The postmaster has received a letter from Mrs. S. A. Davis of Ewing, Ind., inquiring about the whereabouts of members of a family named Leffler, who lived here about 33 years ago, because she has been informed by the sheriff of Perris county, Illinois, that J. D. (Jack) Leffler, a horse trainer there, was near death from taking bichloride of mercury tablets. Inquiries have been made but no one found who remembers the family. At the time the letter was written, Leffler was not expected to live long. It was thought he took the tablets with suicidal intent.

Interesting lights were brought upon actors and theatres at the meeting of the Monday Circle held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Thomas in North Morgan street yesterday afternoon. The paper written upon "Famous Theatres" by Mrs. Minnie Abererombie was read by Mrs. Ned Abererombie in the absence of the former. The facts brought out were very interesting as well as instructive. Mrs. T. M. Green, in her excellent paper on "American Actors of Note," spoke of actors up to the present time, saying that everyone today had their own favorites. She gave sketches of the actors in the Jefferson and Booth families. There was a very good attendance and after the program, tea was served to the guests. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ned Abererombie February 26th when Mrs. Demarchas Brown will speak on "Anthony and Cleopatra."

RECIPES

Already the early spring fruits are being shipped in. Fruits are a necessity whether they are in or out of season. Some new ways of arranging them in tempting dishes follow:

Pineapple Salad.

One can pineapples, one-half dozen oranges, one-half dozen bananas, all cut in small pieces; sprinkle with one cup sugar, let stand four hours. Just before serving pour all the juice off. Then add two cups of marshmallows cut fine. Serve on lettuce leaf. Nuts can be used also. Serve about a dozen people.

Rainbow Salad.

Three boxes of gelatine (raspberry, lemon, orange); make according to directions on box adding one teaspoon sugar and juice of one lemon to each. Pour into separate square pans to set; when stiff cut into cubes about one inch square with sharp knife. Select one of each color, place on lettuce leaf with eight large grapes cut in halves and seeded, one desert spoon of broken pecan nuts. Add whipped cream flavored (some like thick mayonnaise.)

Orange Marmalade.

Wash oranges and lemons, and slice finely into separate dishes. To four parts by weight of the sliced oranges, add one part of sliced lemons. To one part of the fruit mixture, add one and a half parts of water. Boil gently for 30 to 45 minutes. Allow the fruit to cool. To one part of this mixture, add one and a quarter parts of sugar. Boil until the jelly test is obtained. This is about 30 minutes. Place in glasses and seal with paraffin and one lemon will usually make eight glasses.

Next Wednesday, February fourteenth, will be St. Valentine's Day. The crowding of show windows with missives of all colors and all shades of meaning is a herald of the time.

Like some other holidays, this one goes back into the morning of the Christian era and loses itself therein. Valentine was a Christian martyr in the third century. How it comes that the sending of love missives is associated with the saint, or the day set apart to his memory is unknown. There was a still more ancient notion that the fourteenth of February was the day when birds chose mates.

We have a new supply of scale receipt books, large size only containing 500 receipts. The Republican office.

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

FANS BELIEVE LEONARD READY

Proves Conclusively That he is Entitled to Another Bout With Welsh.

LEFT HAND WAS INJURED

Champ Has Engaged in Only One Long Bout Since Winning Title and Should Thaw Out.

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Feb. 13.—When Benny Leonard, with an injured hand, fought a pair of scraps a couple of weeks ago in this city and pisted Phil Bloom and Frankie Callahan all over the same number of rings he proved conclusively to New York fight fans that he is ready for another crack at Champion Welsh.

Efforts undoubtedly will be made to get the two lightweights together in a twenty-round match. If they do mingle over the marathon route it is freely predicted here that Leonard is bound to win.

It is pointed out with considerable seriousness that, even if Leonard didn't lay a glove on the elusive Britisher in the first ten rounds, he would be certain to catch up before the score was over. And when he did! They point to the deadly execution of Leonard's right hand.

In the bout with Bloom Leonard's left hand was absolutely helpless. The best he could do with it was a very poor attempt at guarding. He couldn't stab with it. He made a show of holding it in front of him, but it did little good. But, in no less than three rounds he had Bloom in a very bad way. And Bloom is one of the toughest lightweights in the game.

Frankie Callahan found the same conditions. He discovered that Leonard's left hand was in bad shape and he directed his efforts toward that side of his opponent, with some success. He made a better showing than Bloom, but in the end he was just as badly cut up by the vicious uppercuts and crosses from the Harlem boxer.

Leonard was fast, had an excellent judge of distance, and he stopped numerous heavy blows from the gloves of his opponent.

Such a showing as this entitles Leonard to some consideration from the champion. Welsh has engaged in only one twenty round contest since he won his title. He never has risked it more than that one time in a decision bout. It is time another real match was made for him, and Leonard apparently is the man.

To Prevent Draft.

To keep windows open and yet feel no draft while sleeping take an old sheet or a piece of cloth as long as the bed and about a yard and a half wide. Fasten a loop of tape or elastic to the corners of one lengthwise edge, loop over the posts at the head and foot of bed on side next to the window and you have a screen that will keep off all draft, but still give plenty of fresh air.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Ma Enters the Game.

"What do you want, ma?"
"You must go to the grocery store at once and get a pound of butter."
"But, ma, we're playin' war, an' I'm leadin' our army against the enemy."
"Never mind. Play the commissary department has been shot to pieces and go after that butter."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Five Big Things To Remember When Buying A GAS TRACTOR

WORK AND ENDURANCE (NOT PRICE) DETERMINES VALUE:

The design of the tractor, the material of which it is built, and the company building it determines the work it will do, and how long it will last.

CASE HAS BUILT FOR THE FARMER SINCE 1842:

Next year we celebrate our Seventy-fifth Birthday. Three-quarters of a Century—Think of it! We have lived and prospered only because we have made machinery that has made good with its users.

CASE BUILDS 97% OF ALL PARTS USED IN CASE TRACTORS:

As a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, so a tractor is no stronger than its weakest part. With 97% Case-made and the other 3% subject to Case Laboratory tests, you can rely absolutely on the genuineness of every part of Case Tractors.

STANDING OF THE CONCERN WHOSE TRACTOR YOU BUY:

You cannot take the tractor down, piece by piece, and see every part. For most of it you have to take some one's word. Let the reputation of the company be your guide to those things which you cannot see.

WHICH TRACTORS WILL BECOME ORPHANS:

A leading agricultural paper one year ago said—"The good tractors can be counted on the fingers of one hand." There were more than 100 different makes. Now there are even more. With any Case machine you can always be sure of service. Remember our forty-four big branch houses throughout the country. "Better be Safe than Sorry."

A Heritage We Neglect.

etisi-dfip hla- of H-n ttttttH

All about us, a matter what we be or where, there are wonders and beauties which should afford us any amount of pleasure. Take this morning as I write this chat. From my dressing room window I can see a peaceful world nestled under a beautiful downy white blanket. The trees look like stately sentinels and the bushes and fences fairly sparkle with Nature's gems.

Every day there is some beauty for us to admire. In summer the green flower starred world which seems to sing with the very joy of living. In spring the earth just awakening from its long sleep is most inspiring. And in autumn the whole land doing justice to Nature's paintbrush; and then in winter we have the glorious ermine mantle which envelops all outdoors.

Yet often do we walk through a veritable Paradise without even noticing the surrounding beauty. Our thoughts are far away—probably figuring how we are going to manage our business life, or social life, but seldom dwelling on the beauty about us.

It is usually so, pitiful as it may seem. And there is no remedy except training ourselves to admire things as they come. We may all do this, and our lives will be far better for our silent tribute to Mother Earth and her wonders.

Of course it would be utterly impossible to admire every wonder in the proper way, for they are too numerous to mention and often so obscure that most of us fail to recognize them.

Take the little snowflake—so minute, yet so intricately beautiful. Have you ever examined one under the magnifying glass? Snowflakes are of all sorts of attractive shapes, and perfect to the smallest degree.

Life itself gives us pleasure and wonders galore, but at the same time it gives us so much to be accomplished in such a short time that we often fail to seize our rightful heritage—an appreciation of the beauties about us!

UTILITY BILL WILL PASS

Railroads Oppose But it Will Likely go Through.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Representative Behmer's bill providing for the abolishment of the public service commission and the creation of a railroad commission and a public utility commission, was expected to be handed down for passage in the house today by Speaker Eschbach. Railroads are strongly opposed to the bill. It is indorsed by the brotherhoods and labor organizations. The governor, under the proposed law, would appoint the members of the commissions. The railroads fear that it would not be made up of strictly "railroad men" but that the commission would be composed of a representative of the shippers; a representative of the employees and a representative of the railroads.

REAL ESTATE MEN BUCK PLUMBERS

Opposed to Bill Introduced at Their Request to Regulate Sewage
Disposal.

COMMITTEE HAS MEASURE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Real estate men and plumbers are clashing over a bill introduced in the legislature by Representative O'Leary of Terre Haute. The bill empowers the state board of health to condemn any body of water used for either a private or public supply, provided it is found contaminated. The bill also regulates sewage disposal.

The measure was introduced by O'Leary at the request of the state plumbers association. The real estate dealers claim that restrictions imposed by the bill would discourage small property owners from building homes. They also claim that it would increase the cost of constructing houses.

The bill is being considered by the house committee on cities and towns.

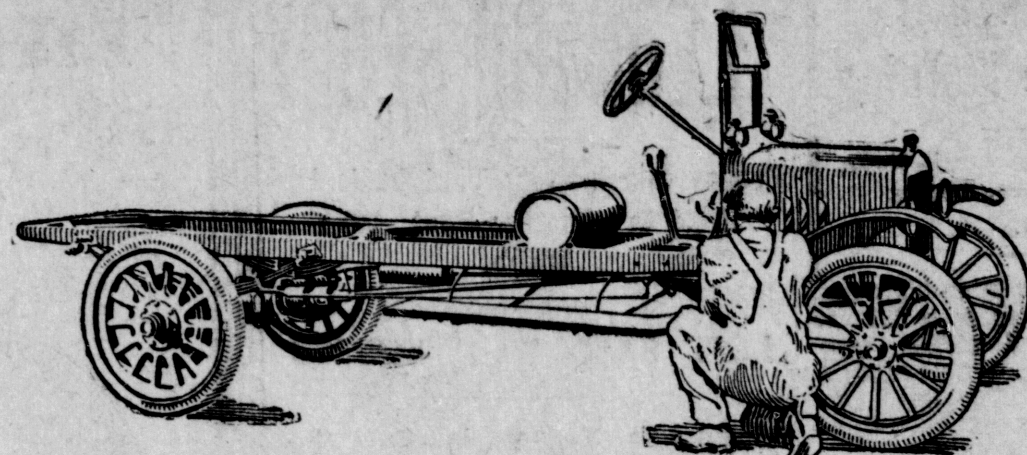

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns
Gray, Faded Hair Dark
and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

TOKIO GROWING.

(By United Press.)

Tokio, Jan. 5.—(By Mail)—In three years Tokio's population has grown from 2,050,126 to 2,288,735, according to a new census report announced today. The present population is houses in 595,897 homes, whereas in 1913 there were only 519,735 households.

Besides being one of the leading population centers of the world, Japan's capital has the distinction of probably covering more ground than any other city. There are no apartments, "flats," or skyscrapers in Japan—earthquakes forbid them—so the little one—and two-story homes must necessarily cover a large area.

English Is Bad Enough.

"Why talk of the difficulty of pronouncing Polish, Austrian, Russian or Roumanian names," says a writer in the San Francisco Chronicle, "when ninety-nine out of every hundred cannot pronounce scores and scores of English names? Just think of Bertie pronounced as Barty, Dilwyn as Dillon, Belvoir as Beever, Featherstonhaugh as Festunhaw, Dalzell as Dee-el, Ruthven as Rivven. And these are by no means the worst cases!"

Man's Perversity.

If the law were to edict that man and wife should never be together for more than six months in the year it would be broken every day and men and women would stand hunger and stripes to come together for twelve months in twelve; if love of home were made a crime a family life would arise more touching than anything Queen Victoria ever dreamed.—W. L. George in Atlantic.

Happily Disposed Of.

"Mr. Beats," the grocer said wearily, "I ask you for the last time, will you pay that $20 you owe me?" "For the last time?" Beats replied cheerfully. "I'm glad to hear you say that, old man. You know, I was getting awfully tired of hearing you ask that foolish question!" — New York Times.

Beggar Women of Vigo, Spain, Sport Elaborate Gold Earrings.

Perhaps you labor under the delusion that the principal vocation in life of a handkerchief is to attend at discreet intervals the nose when that necessary feature indulges in a little Marathon. Not so in Vigo, Spain. Yet handkerchiefs are much more in evidence in this quaint Spanish seaport than in our nasal Yankee midst.

Here, however, they are raised to an exalted position far ahead of their plain usage of the western world. In Vigo they cover the head of every peasant woman and even the infants in arms. What matter if the child lacks shoes, if even a scanty slip is its sole sartorial effect? Always its head is carefully muffled from any advances of the sun by a bright hued handkerchief carefully knotted under its tender infantile chin.

A Paisley shawl and a pair of elaborate filigree gold earrings are the two other necessary adjuncts of a typical Vigeoese toilet. In the earring fashion as well as the handkerchief one the infants of Vigo invariably share. The toddlers not only have big ears, but they are also gold trimmed.

Even pauper women in filthy rags begging by the roadside have ears ornate with golden baubles flaunted in the face of poverty.

The tatters of these few beggars are the surprisingly few evidences of dirt you detect in this picturesque little fishing village. With its steep, straggling cobble streets climbing up characteristic Spanish steps to the top of its fortress topped mount it seems almost a spotless town after the unspeakable sights and smells of Bahia.—Pittsburgh Press.

CALLED THEM INDIANS.

How the Red Men of This Country Came to Get That Name.

"But," said the little girl who has now reached the dignity of owning a geography, "why did they call the people they found in this country 'Indians'?" The people who live in India ought to be called by that name."

Now, that was a very appropriate question for the little girl to ask. And the answer to the little girl and to any other little girls and boys who may be puzzled by the same thing is that Columbus and his men didn't start out to discover America. They didn't, of course, know there was any America here. What they did believe was that the world was round and that by sailing far enough they would come up on the other side. You all know now that what they believed is true, but in those days most people believed that the world was flat and that if a ship sailed far enough out into the ocean it would fall off the edge.

Columbus said that if he took a ship and sailed and sailed he would at last come to India. Now, India was a very rich country, and for hundreds of years Europe had been trying to find an easier way to get there, so what Columbus said appealed to a good many merchants and traders, and Spain finally fitted out some ships for Columbus.

You all know that Columbus finally did reach America, but he believed he had sailed clear around the world and had come to India from the other side, so he named the people he found on the shore "Indians." And after it was found that this was not India, but a new world, people went on calling the people Indians because that was as good a name as any for them, they thought.—Kansas City Star.

DEVIL GETS FIRST BLOW OF CAMPAIGN

Preliminaries to Big Revival in New York Start With Holding of Paper Meetings.

CITY DIVIDED INTO BLOCKS

New York, Feb. 13.—The devil got an awful wallop in the first round of the Billy Sunday preliminary campaign here today. When the Old Boy picked up his spiked tail and his pitchfork and started out from Broadway on his daily round he found prayer meetings going on in every block that houses Gotham's twelve million souls.

Beginning today these "cottage" prayer meetings will be held twice a week until Sunday's arrival April 1. One of the residences opened for the neighborhood prayer meetings in the Plaza section today was that of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller both are deeply interested in the success of the Sunday campaign. The city has been divided into twenty sections and "prayer blocks" have been systematically organized. The burden of the prayers prayed is for the salvation of "backslidden" Christians.

The giraffe is a high, narrow animal found in circuses and delirium tremens.

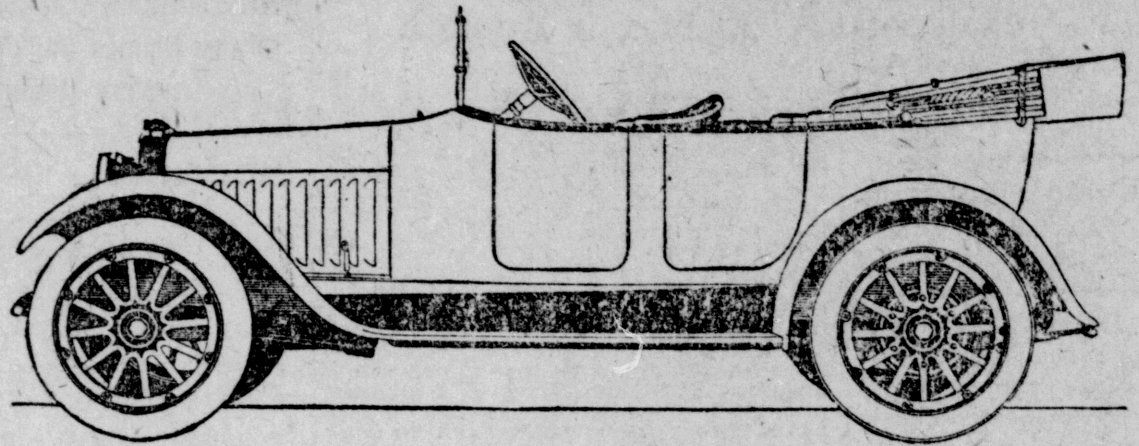

It has a ten-story neck and no use for it. We often wonder why is a giraffe's neck, anyhow. The giraffe probably wonders too. It's so long the poor thing could choke to death at one end and never know it at the other. And it keeps his head so far from the ground that every time he looks down he's afraid he'll fall off.

But let's not hold the giraffe to strictly to account for his neck.

He probably started out to be a boa constrictor and forgot about it.

The only person that ever envied a giraffe was a small boy on the wrong side of the fence at a ball game.

BACK HOUSING BILLS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Representatives of the American Brotherhood, a fraternal organization, are in Indianapolis working in the interests of the good housing bills which have been presented to the legislature—in the senate by C. RUSE OF A CHINAMAN.

Clever Way He Got Around the Law and Gained His Case.

A cemetery is the one sacred spot in China. To desecrate such a place is the worst of crimes. Some years since there lived in a village on the plain of the Yellow river a man called Tu. His little farm furnished him with a comfortable living, but nothing more. Like all farms in that part of China, there was no fence to separate his fields from those of his neighbors. One of these neighbors was a rascal, who, knowing Mr. Tu to be of mild disposition, resolved to impose upon him by plowing a few furrows of Mr. Tu's land and thus incorporating it with his own. This act did not pass unobserved, but Mr. Tu was cautious as well as mild. He knew that litigation came high and was uncertain. "Better," he said to himself, "to endure the wrong than to suffer loss of both land and money."

The next year the neighbor repeated the experiment and plowed up a few more furrows. Again Mr. Tu consulted with himself and determined, as previously, that law was too expensive a luxury for him.

The neighbor, encouraged by this complaisance, continued to add to his own acres at the other's expense. At length he became so bold as to incorporate in this way the family cemetery, where were buried Mr. Tu's ancestors.

Then Mr. Tu saw the chance for which he had been waiting. By plowing up this cemetery the neighbor had committed sacrilege. The only difficulty was that the punishment was so severe that it might not be possible, unless he was careful, to get his neighbor punished at all. For the law was that if the magistrate should take notice of the suit he would have to send up a report to his superiors at the capital of the province and request that proper punishment be inflicted upon himself, seeing that so heinous a crime had been committed in the district for which he was responsible.

Accordingly Mr. Tu brought the matter before the magistrate in a way that did not involve that official. He brought accusation against his father, who was dead, for having moved his grave off his son's land to that of the encroaching neighbor instead of abiding in the cemetery where he properly belonged!

The Chinese love humor and greatly admire shrewdness. When, therefore, the magistrate read this amazing document he smiled with genuine appreciation of Mr. Tu's cleverness, called up the offending neighbor, made him restore all the land he had appropriated and punished him with due severity for his robbery.—Youth's Companion.

Senator Saulsbury Offers Resolution as Means of Preventing Violation of Sea Rights

AVOID WAR DECLARATION

It is Understood Resolution Has Approval of President Wilson—Senator Stone Opposes It

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 13.—Senator Saulsbury today offered a resolution to throw down the neutrality bars and open all United States ports to allied warships.

He said this might enable this government, without a declaration of war, to assist in preventing violation of the right of the seas by giving assistance to those at present engaged in combating the violations.

It is understood the resolution has the approval of President Wilson. It was referred to the senate foreign relations committee. Senator Stone, chairman of the committee, is opposed to the plan.

The survivors stated the crew of thirty-eight left the sinking ship in two boats. One was afloat fifteen hours before being picked up and the other sixty-eight. One man died of wounds and four others were injured.

Von Hindenburg believes with preparations now under way the war will be won by Germany before America could enter. Orders have been issued cancelling vacations of army men for February. England Guards Path of Merchantmen With Warships Which Are in Constant Touch.

PASSENGERS CONFIRM THIS

(By United Press.)
New York, Feb. 13.—England has established a lane across the Atlantic, guarded by warships which are in constant touch by wireless. This was clearly indicated today by statements from passengers arriving from England.

Seven steamers from British ports arrived in New York today. Passengers confirmed the belief that they had been convoyed. They said that when the Cunard liner Aescania left England fifteen merchantmen were voyaged. As warships arrived, the concentrated in port awaiting steamers were escorted on their voyages in groups of three and four. While traversing waters about England, trawlers went ahead of the ships with heavy steel nets stretched between them to sweep up mines and guard against torpedoes.

TO DEMAND THAT PRISONERS BE FREED

United States Will Request That Passengers of Yarrowdale Held in Germany be Released

WILL EXPLAIN ATTITUDE

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 13.—Demand for release of American prisoners of the Yarrowdale will be made on Germany, it was stated today.

With the demand will go an explanation that the United States is not seizing German ships or crews and is interested only in seeing that the ships are not sunk as obstructions to American harbors.

Germany's tactics toward Ambassador Gerard and other Americans has aroused official anger and information that the Yarrowdale prisoners are being detained in Germany has served to increase this spirit toward Germany.

Germany's victory is at hand. They hold this victory will be achieved because of the success of the unlimited submarine warfare and because of the shortage of French munitions.

CARRANZA DIPS INTO GAME

Tries Hand as Peace Maker by Proposing Effort to End War

Washington, Feb. 13.—Mexico, which has been the scene of one revolution after another, has taken a dip into the peace game as an international peace maker and has forwarded an identical note to all neutrals, proposing a joint effort to end the European war to be followed, in the event of failure, by the cutting off of all exports of munitions and supplies to belligerents.

The communication was handed to the state department by R. P. DeNegri, charge of the Carranza Embassy here. It was received with expressions of mingled amusement and gravity in official quarters. There has been no decision as to the American government's response, but the prevailing opinion was that Secretary Lansing would reply promptly and briefly, referring to the futile effort of President Wilson to bring about peace, and pointing out that under existing conditions an embargo on exports would be a breach of neutrality.

TO SUPPRESS THE LOAN SHARK

This is Purpose of Bill Introduced in the House Today by Representative Mosier

PROVIDES FOR COMMISSION

Measure Providing for Payment of Road Taxes in Cash is Passed by the Senate

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Provision for the poor classes to obtain money and an investigation of the working of loan sharks in the state is proposed in a bill introduced today in the house of representatives today by Representative Mosier.

The bill provides for the appointment of a state loan commission by the governor, the members to serve without pay. They will report on the advisability of creating a state loan fund and passing drastic laws to prevent loan sharks from doing business in Indiana.

Several minor bills were passed by both houses. Senator Beardley's bill providing for the payment of road taxes in cash was passed by the senate. It is now possible to "work out" part of the tax.

The house passed Turner's bill removing the charge of manslaughter which may now be placed against engineers when a person is accidentally killed on a crossing.

Speaker Eschbach of the house again urged the committees to speed up action on bills.

The Aldredge bill licensing chiropractors will be called from the committee tomorrow, it was learned. The majority report will favor indefinite postponement.

A blow at the state control feature of the administration highway bill was delivered yesterday when the Senate sent the bill to engrossment with amendments curtailing the powers of the state highway engineer. An amendment offered by Senator Culbertson, Democrat giving boards of county commissioners the right to advertise for bids and award contracts, instead of vesting that right in the highway engineer, was adopted by a vote of 24 to 20.

Four Republicans voted for the Culbertson amendment, but the Republicans received no support from the Democrats in their attempt to save the state control feature. The bill is now ready for passage. The Republicans who voted for the amendment were Senator Hudgins of Martinsville, James of Dana, Nejd of Whiting and Reser of Lafayette.

As the bill now stands it provides that the county commissioners in the counties where the main market highways are to be built shall receive bids for road construction on two or more kinds of material. The chief fight centered on the provision for the commissioners to specify more than one material. The original measure provided for the highway engineer to receive bids, and made it optional with the Highway Commission whether bids would be for two or more types.

Today's Legislative Oddity
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Besides having the distinction of being the "boldest bald-headed man" in the senate, Gaines Homer Hazen of War-rick county is also entitled to a place in the hall of fame for refusing to wear an overcoat during the coldest weather. The Senator declares that the two degrees below zero weather which was experienced in Indianapolis this winter isn't near cold enough to demand an overcoat.

ATTEMPTING TO RUSH COAL HERE

City Officials Have Co-Operation of Pennsylvania Agent in Trying to Get Fuel to Rushville

MANY COAL BINS ARE EMPTY

Have Every Assurance That Two Cars Will be Here by This Evening or Tomorrow Morning

The two cars of coal ordered by the city and to be sold at cost to the people of the city failed to arrive here until two o'clock this afternoon. The city officials were greatly disappointed as they fully expected the coal to get here this morning. The uncertainty with which the railroads handle the coal is shown clearly in the case of the city.

Communication with the mines at Bicknell revealed the fact that the two cars of coal left there yesterday morning at 9:15 o'clock and should have been here on the northbound local freight this morning over the Pennsylvania. The local agent of the railroad is aiding the city, and attempting to rush the coal through from the mines.

It is believed that the coal reached Columbus too late for the local freight and spent the greater part of the day in the Columbus yards. The coal, however, is expected here late this evening or early in the morning.

Should the coal arrive here late this afternoon the municipal coal yard will at once be placed in operation and the coal will be offered for sale on the two cars as predicted judging from the number of inquiries made to the city officials.

People living in the country are still under the impression that they can obtain the coal. This is wrong as the coal is only for the people of the city. Superintendent Mahin stated today that it might be well to let the country people have some of the coal after it is seen that the people here are taken care of, but nothing definite has been done.

Many people are holding off from ordering coal, waiting on the city's supply. The coal bins of a large number of people are practically empty and if the coal does not arrive by tomorrow there is bound to be suffering.

SHOWS TO LARGE CROWDS

"The Birth of a Nation" Depicts Incidents of Civil War

"The Birth of a Nation" was shown before two large crowds Monday at the Graham Annex. It proved to be the most thrilling at the same time awe-inspiring motion picture ever witnessed in Rushville. The first period led up to the close of the Civil war, and in a most vivid and realistic way pictured the horrors of the struggle between the north and south. The siege of Atlanta made very real what may be expected of war, in case the United States becomes embroiled in the European conflict. The last period dealt with the reconstruction of the south and showed the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in suppressing the Carpet-baggers and others who advocated placing the freed negro in the south on the same quality in all respects as the whites.

SHELBYVILLE HAS
$40,000 FIRE TODAY

Cheney Building on Public Square, Housing Three Stores, is Destroyed This Morning

ONE OWNED BY J. W. WORDEN

(By United Press.)
Shelbyville, Ind., Feb. 13.—Fire early today caused $40,000 damage to one of the main business blocks of this city. The blaze started at 4:30 in the basement of a store and despite efforts of firemen was soon beyond control. The building was owned by Charles Cheney who is in Florida.

Former Shelbyville residents living here now recalled that the Cheney building housed J. W. Worden's harness store, Meen's drug store and Davis' dry goods store. Mr. Worden is a brother-in-law of Miss Ella Wilson and Mrs. Mollie Wilhelm of this city. A report reached here that Mr. Worden had been stricken blind from the shock, but it was not credited by his relatives. However, Miss Wilson went to Shelbyville because Mrs. Worden, her sister, has been in poor health, and Mr. Worden is suffering with blood poisoning in one of his hands and is unable to work.

The Cheney building was in the southwest quarter of the public square.

FATHER ARRAYED
AGAINST HIS SON

Suit of William Cross Against Irvin Cross for Possession Heard in Court Today

STARTED WITH ARREST IN MAY

It was father against son today in circuit court when Judge Sparks heard the case of William Cross against Irvin Cross for possession. The case originally started when the elder Mr. Cross had some trouble last May with his daughter-in-law, resulting in her having him arrested.

The son lives on a half-acre tract of land owned by his father on the Fort Wayne road and after this family trouble the suit for possession was brought. Mr. Cross testified that he had sold the place to his son for $900 and was to be paid at the rate of $10 a month. He stated that his son had paid him but $18 on the account.

A number of witnesses testified for the defendant that they had heard his father say that he had given the place to his son. The court took the case under advisement.

SIMILAR STEP IN CHICAGO

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 13.—Refusal of eastern railroads to accept shipments owing to the submarine embargo is causing a congestion of loaded freight cars in western terminals.

Steps were being taken here today to relieve the situation by adopting the measures taken by eastern railroads. Western roads sent out orders today to refuse shipments going east of Chicago unless guarantee of storage facilities were presented.

CORPORATIONS ARE HIT BY LAW

All Utilities and Many Others Would Have to Pay Another Tax if it Passes Legislature

TO RELIEVE PUBLIC BURDEN

Such a Measure, If Enacted Into Law, Would Result in Substantial Revenues Here

If the Houghton excise tax bill which has been introduced in the house becomes a law the local utilities companies would be required to pay an additional revenue for the right to operate under the franchises which are given them. The measure is advocated by Governor Goodrich who believes it will go a long way towards solving the problem of taxation in this state by relieving the public of raising part of the state finances. Corporations all over the state that would be affected by the bill are watching the legislature's action with keen interest.

The excise tax bill to require an annual license tax from domestic and foreign corporations doing business in the state, would place an annual tax on practically all kinds of corporations, to be computed either on the capital stock of the companies or the annual gross earnings.

All foreign and domestic corporations, including railroad and inter-urban companies, telegraph and telephone companies, water, gas and oil companies, and banks and life insurance companies, are named in the bill to pay annual license taxes to the state for the privilege of "exercising their corporate franchises."

Taxes to be computed on the capital stock of companies are to be based on the amount of dividends declared or earned by the corporations during each year. If no dividend is declared or earned, or if a dividend of less than 3 per cent. is declared, the rate of taxation provided is three-fourth of one mill on each dollar of capital stock. If the dividend declared is more than 3 per cent. the tax provided is one-fourth of a mill for each 1 per cent. or fraction of dividends, computed on each dollar of capital stock.

Railroads and electric lines are required to pay a tax equal to one-half of 1 per cent. on the gross earnings of the company within the state. Where the companies operate interstate lines the gross earnings in the state are to be computed in relation to the total gross earnings in the same proportion as the mileage in the state is to the total mileage of the roads.

Telegraph, telephone, sleeping car, parlor car, dining car, freight line and express companies are required to pay a tax equal to 1 per cent. of their gross earnings in the state, to be computed by the same methods as those regulating railroad companies.

Water, gas, light, power and steam heating companies are required to pay a tax equal to 1 per cent. of the total gross earnings. Taxes to be paid by insurance companies are listed as follows: Foreign insurance companies except life insurance companies, pay 2 per cent. of their gross receipts less return premiums and reinsurance paid within the state; foreign life insurance companies pay 3 per cent. of gross receipts less return premiums and reinsurance; state insurance companies, excepting life, 1 per cent.; and state life insurance companies, 1 per cent. less the losses actually paid in the state.

State banks or trust companies are required to pay 1/8 of 1 per cent. of their capital stock, surplus and undivided profits; savings banks, 1/8 of 1 per cent. on par value of surplus and undivided profits.

Oil companies are required to pay 4 per cent. on the total gross receipts in the state. Bonding, mortgage guaranty, real estate and loan companies are required to pay 1/8 of 1 per cent. on the total gross receipts in the state.

$10,000 COUNTRY HOME BURNS.
Greensburg, Ind., Feb. 13.—The country home of Jesse G. Donnell, one of the finest in the county, north of Greensburg, was destroyed by fire late yesterday. The loss is estimated at about $10,000 partially covered by insurance. The fire started while men were thawing frozen water pipes and it is believed that the flame from a blow torch caught an old birds' nest. The flames spread rapidly and when neighbors arrived the entire lower floor was ablaze. However, some of the furniture downstairs was saved. Mr. Donnell was removed to the home of a neighbor after suffering a complete collapse.

"The Passing Show of 1916" the Winter Garden's annual out-burst of travesty, music, extravaganza, comedy and girls will begin its annual engagement at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis the week of February 19th, continuing through the entire week with matinees Wednesday, Thursday (Washington's Birthday) and Saturday. This will be the fifth Passing Show to delight, surprise, astound the theatre-goers of this city. With each show it seemed that the limit of business had been reached; that the extent of lavishness of the production had arrived at the summit of spectacular extravaganza; that having assembled the talent for the last show there was nothing left, the whole field having been raked as with a harrow. Then a new show came along and it was discovered that the last one was only the beginning of another big mobilization of spectacular surprises and consummate cleverness. Each of these shows has had along with various spectacular wonders, one big melodramatic smash. Memory carries us back to the Capitol steps

And the company to appear in this mastodon of musical extravaganza is the most surprising collection of talent that has been assembled for any Passing Show. Ed Wynn heads the list of comedians. Ed Wynn has made a great success in this new show. His garage scene is said to be the most hilarious travesty that has been seen in any Winter Garden Show. Then there is Belle Ashlyn, a comedienne with an extraordinary sense of the comic. But the list is too long to specialize as to each member. One can only state that there will be Fred Walton, Mabel Dory Ford, the wonderful dancers, Augusta Dean, Herman Timberg, Philbrick and Mack, William Arnold, Stella Hoban, James Clemmons, Ma-Belle, the dancer; the five Violin Beauties, Elida Morris, Pearl Easton, and Vera Rehm. Thomas A. Edison Wants You To Hear This Test
TONIGHT at 8:15---United Presbyterian Church

Many famous artists have made these "Tone Tests." Read what the papers say:

"Impossible to distinguish between the singer's living voice and its re-creation by the instrument that bears the stamp of Edison's genius."
Boston Herald Nov. 19th, 1915.

"The ear could not tell when it was listening to the phonograph alone. Only the eye could discover the truth by noting when the singer's mouth was open or closed."
N. Y. Evening Mail, May 3d, 1916.

It was virtually impossible to distinguish between the real voice and the Re-Created voice of the singer."
Philadelphia Evening Telegram, April 28th, 1916.

"Christine Miller herself and Christine Miller on the Edison sang side by side. The two voices were so identical that when one or the other stopped it was impossible to detect it in the audience."
Cleveland Leader, Sept. 23d, 1915.

"Not possible to tell one from the other."
Detroit Free Press, Oct. 12th, 1915.

Music's re-creation! A reproduction of the human voice from the phonograph which the ear cannot distinguish from the living voice! Has Mr. Edison accomplished this miracle at last? Come—hear this astonishing test—and judge.

Miss Helen Clark, the popular concert Contralto will be here, at Mr. Edison's request, to offer you the only evidence by which you can really judge. She will sing side by side with Mr. Edison's re-creation of her voice! See if you can tell, without watching the motion of Miss Clark's lips, which is the living voice and which the re-creation.

What Is Your Judgment?

Mr. Edison insists upon this unique and daring test. For it tells more than the most vivid words can express. Its convincing frankness sweeps away all doubt. Mr. Edison wants your true judgment of his new musical art. He wants the judgment of every music lover. Has he re-created music? Has he eliminated all mechanical blemish? Has he preserved the living tones in all their reality?

He puts the original and his re-creation before you—side by side. He hides nothing. Asks no allowances. He dares to make the vital test that no one else but he has ever ventured. And he asks you to decide.

Call or Write for Complimentary Tickets

We want all music lovers in this community to hear this interesting and convincing test. Complimentary tickets will be distributed to those who apply in person at our store or by mail. You and your friends are urged to attend. Mr. Edison recommends that children under three years of age be not admitted as they do not realize that they can mar the intent of this recital by crying or talking. We advise you to apply early before all tickets are exhausted.

DID YOU EVER SEE A CAT STRIKE?

Sleepy old cat lying by a rat hole. Lazy, half asleep—then biff!

Say, if you could strike as quick and hard as that you could make Jess Willard look sick! Why don't you let your tired body muscles sleep until the right moment—and then—biff! It's all in being able to relax.

One of the greatest aids ever given to man for soothing tired muscles, overworked muscles, is Speedway Liniment. It goes right in through the skin and relieves those sore, overworked ligaments. It's soothing—restful—and wonderfully upbuilding. Trouble with most people is that there are too many little biffs, little throbs, little aches that we don't take care of and soon the muscles lose their pep and comeback. Try Speedway Liniment. Put it on full strength with a good brisk rub. It does not blister—nor stain—nor injure the most delicate fabric. Pleasant to use as toilet water. Relieves neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains, bruises, soreness anywhere. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes at Hargrove & Mullin and F. B. Johnson & Co. Just try it.—(Adv.)

America First.

It is enough to arouse the patriotism of the average American to read the resounding statement of George Sylvester Viereck, editor of The Fatherland, in the current issue. It expresses a fine sentiment and is worth consideration of the American who prides himself on his Americanism, because it will make his faith in his country stronger. Incidentally Mr. Viereck announced the change in the name of The Fatherland to The New World. Read what he has to say:

Beginning with this number, The Fatherland will be known as The New World. We shall attempt to serve our readers under the new name as well as under the old, adopting as our slogan the words of Carl Schurz: "My Country, right or wrong; if right to be kept right; if wrong, to be set right."

The Fatherland has always emphasized that it is an American publication. Its original name was adopted as a graceful tribute to the country of our fathers. Our Fatherland is America. The change of name implies no change of heart. We have considered a change of name many times in the past. We are making the change now to avoid misunderstanding.

We shall retain our independence of judgment. We do not believe that we forfeit our right of free speech, because we are Americans of German descent, even in case of war between the United States and Germany. But we desire to avoid unnecessary provocation.

In Germany a publication named Uncle Sam would not be popular at present. A publication named The Fatherland may seem objectionable to many, especially to Americans of German descent who desire to emphasize that their allegiance is to America solely. We want to stress the fact that America is our country, not merely the country of those whose progenitors came with the Pilgrim Fathers. We are the heirs of the New World and the Old.

The New World is not the mouthpieces merely of the German Americans, but of all Americans who believe in maintaining the Declaration of Independence, and who, remembering the advice of George Washington, abhor an entangling alliance with the ancient enemy of the United States. Between England and Germany, we are for Germany against Russia, Japan, France, Serbia, Montenegro, Belgium, Portugal, Italy and Roumania. Between America and Germany, or between America and any other land, we are for America always.

We cannot champion Germany's cause if our country is at odds with Germany. Fortunately we are not yet embroiled in the war. We trust that President Wilson will be able to maintain peace. We know that he can maintain peace, if he demands of both belligerents alike strict observance of the Declaration of London.

Whatever happens, we shall continue to contend for peace. We shall attempt to combat the menace of racial dissension. We shall stand for Fair-Play for all. We shall oppose with unflinching determination those disloyal Americans who would make our country the catspaw of Great Britain. May the spirit of Carl Schurz whom we invoke in our motto guide the destiny of our Country!

Some day we will open up our heart and tell the world how much the people love you. But it will be after you are dead.

We just can't refrain from mentioning Carranza again, but he is worth only a line or two at best.

HOOSIER PESTS.

BY R. E. SNODGRASS.
Assistant State Entomologist.
(By United Press.)

The hen has her entomological troubles as well as persons. Her person if afflicted with hordes of crawling creatures that disport themselves over her body. While they perhaps do no physical harm, they cause the hen much annoyance and reduce her vitality which, in turn, lessens her egg producing powers.

These parasites are small, flat-bodied insects called chicken lice. Unlike regular lice, they do not suck the blood of their victims. They have a pair of biting jaws like a grasshopper and feed on the feathers and hairs. The eggs are attached to the base of the feather.

A simple and effective remedy for chicken lice is blue ointment—a preparation containing mercury sold in drug stores. A small amount—the size of a pea is rubbed into the skin of the birds beneath the wing or below the vent—the latter location is the best. The lice travel rapidly over the body, soon find the ointment, eat it and die. Many tests have been made and it said this treatment, will rid a chicken of the pests in a few days and remain effective for several months, getting the young lice as they hatch from the eggs.

Do not neglect therooters because the parasites can migrate from one bird to another. Discard the common remedy of sulphur and lard. Sulphur burns the skin and may cause the death of young birds. Another class of chicken pests is the mite. The mite lives and breed in chicken houses and may be controlled by spraying with some substance such as carbolenium.

WOULD NEED MONEY.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—In case a call for troops is issued by the United States government, one of the first official acts toward the mobilization of Indiana men would be to ask an extra appropriation from the legislature to care for the work, according to Adj. Gen. Harry B. Smith. The ways and means committee will be asked for the regular biennial appropriation of $200,000 for the guard and all extra funds needed for immediate mobilization.

There will be a penny supper in the basement of the Christian church on Friday February 16th. Supper served from 5 to 7. 28515

OFFICIALS LEAD ATTACK ON BILL

Those Who Would be Out of a Job if Billed is Passed Kick on Conservation.

IS BACKED BY GOVERNOR

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Senator Wolfson's bill providing for the creation of a state conservation commission to take over the work of several state departments, is the target for attacks by many state officials whose jobs it would abolish. The bill is backed by Gov. Goodrich.

Heads of several departments which would be abolished by the measure stated to the United Press today that the bill would be opposed by the democrats and several republicans in the senate to insure by measure's defeat in the upper house of the legislature. Democrats will probably oppose the bill.

Senator Wolfson, who is chairman of the committee which has the measure under consideration, stated that he was holding it back until he believed an opportune time had arrived to present it to the senate. Democratic members of the senate recently started a move to take the bill from the committee and kill it but this scheme was abandoned for the time at least.

WANT PRISON MOVED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—The prison committee of the senate will hold a public hearing tonight on the bill introduced by Senator Spann to move the State Women's prison from its present location in Indianapolis to a site within fifty miles of the city.

The prison is now located close to the Winona institute and officials of the institute believe the prison should be moved. The property on which it is located is very valuable.

THE FREAK BILL BOARD

Selected from various legislatures:

Minnesota—To force lumberjacks to bathe, and furnish tubs in lumber camps.

Wisconsin—To prohibit normal and university instructors smoking cigarettes.

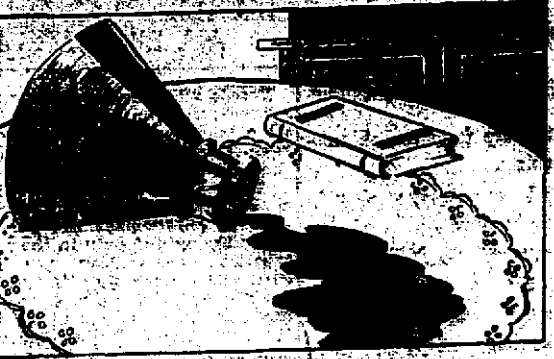

Texas—To compel churchgoers to leave their firearms outside.

Massachusetts—To prohibit physicians and dentists wearing whiskers.

Colorado—To provide that bulls out walking at night shall wear tail lights.

STOMACH SYMPTOMS

A leading physician of Chicago says: "Merely easing the pain with narcotics to give relief is a long way from cure for stomach trouble. Besides the danger of neglect or inadequate treatment may lead to more serious maladies. What appear to be only minor troubles are often the symptoms of gall stones, acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, auto-intoxication, yellow jaundice, appendicitis, cancer and ulcers of the stomach and intestines; or other fatal ailments." Stomach suffers should take warning. Do not have blind faith in treatment that are giving no results. Much suffering could be avoided, many surgical operations prevented, scores of lives saved had Mayr's Wonderful Remedy been taken in time. It is not a long drawn out treatment. It acts on the very source and foundation of stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, eliminating from the system the hard, poisonous catarrhal accretions and shows them to you. Try a dose tonight—tomorrow your days of torture will be over and another friend will be added to nearly a million grateful human beings, many who declare Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has saved their life. Get it from your druggist today—tomorrow may be too late. For sale by Frank E. Volcott and druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

Too Bad, But---

Yes, it is too bad the ink was spilled on that pretty centerpiece, and it would be equally bad to have it spilled on the table cloth or on a garment. But it is not so serious as it would have been if you didn't have a first-class cleaning establishment to take it to.

A spot such as this doesn't worry our workers in the least. They know how to take it out and make the article, apparently ruined, look like new.

Bring the results of your ink accident to us. Ours is a first aid establishment in cases of this character.

FRIENDS IN ANY HOME, HE SAYS

J. M. Benton Has First Faith in Tanlac—Relates Own Experience.

Elkhart, Ind., Feb. 12.—"Tanalac will make friends in any home in which it goes," was the opinion expressed here on December 6 by J. M. Benton, of 675 Strong avenue, this city.

Mr. Benton then told how the Master Medicine made friends in his home. After considering his case almost hopeless, he said that Tanlac went straight to the seat of his trouble and has benefited him greatly.

"I thought I never would be any better," Mr. Benton said. "I had rheumatism, severe pains in my limbs, especially in damp weather bothering me. At night I simply suffered agonies. Of course, I didn't sleep very much because of the pains and would just toss and roll about the bed.

"Friends told me about Tanlac and recommended it so highly that I decided to try it. I sleep soundly and peacefully all through the night now and, in fact, have been benefited in every respect.

"I gladly recommend Tanlac to all who are bothered with rheumatism as I was for several years."

Tanalac, the Master Medicine, is a blood purifier and system cleanser without a superior. It is, therefore, a fine remedy for rheumatism. Tanlac also is excellent for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness and the like.

Tanalac is now being specially introduced and explained in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons and in Milroy at Barton and Sheppard's.—(Adv.)

WILL EQUIP 20 AIR SQUADRONS

Canada Plans to Organize and Train Men This Coming Spring—England Backs Move.

360 MACHINES ARE REQUIRED

Some Will be Able to Carry Three and One-half Tons of Bombs and 3-inch Guns.

By GEORGE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Feb. 13.—Twenty reserve aero squadrons will be organized, trained and equipped for the British Royal Flying Corps by the Canadian government this spring. The announcement was made today to the Aero Club of America by the Aero Club of Canada, of which Col. W. Hamilton Merritt is president.

The aviation training schools being established in Canada to train the aviators are under the control of the imperial Army authorities. The Munitions Board has charge of having constructed the 360 training aeroplanes and aviators in the Dominion. As in the case of the United States he number of men anxious to join the Air Service is large. The waiting list numbers thousands, and the raining will begin on a large scale early in the spring. Candidates for the air service must be from 19 to 25.

The Aero Club of Canada at Toronto will assist in securing and training the aviators.

According to reliable reports from England, the British Government has pent $250,000,000 for the air service in the last twelve months, in building up the Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Naval Air Service. There are about 12,000 aviators in the two services.

Henry Woodhouse, a member of the Board of Governors of the Aero Club of America, today said:

"The employment of aeroplanes in the present war is now general. Aeroplanes are used in cavalry, infantry and artillery, reconnoitering, bombing, observing artillery fire, photographing the enemy's position, and the like.

There are aeroplanes which carry 1½ tons of bombs, guns and munitions. Some of these mount three-inch guns, which make them literally flying artillery. These aeroplanes are used to attack trains, ships and bodies of troops. Operations are being extended more and more, and here is no doubt that the war is to end in the air.

"Other countries are also greatly expanding their air services, and many countries are looking toward the United States to supply the aeroplanes and motors—principally the latter.

"They want large, high, horse-power motors in large quantities. Fortunately, American aeroplane motors are now as good as the very best European motors, and there are 17 different types of motors upwards of 150 H. P., being developed in the United States today.

"A number of these motors are being shown at the First Pan American Aeronautic Exposition at the Grand Central Palace from February 8th to 15th."

The present salary is $2 a day but there is no allowance for traveling expenses. Indicts Booze In Poem Written While In Jail

Gordon Bennett, who is spending eleven days in jail, finds the time passes slowly and has taken to writing poetry. The one he handed Sheriff Cavitt yesterday was written before Bennett was arraigned and it shows clearly that he was expecting a trip to the penal farm. The "poem" follows:

At last that I'm in jail again,
I'll describe my thoughts with this old pen.

I think of Bebout as in days of yore
When he gave me 25 days with a promise of more.

As I sit here I think of the penal farm,
And wonder if there I'll do any harm.

My partner's been there, and wore the yoke,
With 680 days, and that's no joke.

So I guess that its now my turn next
With the penal farm as my future text.

It may hurt some, but as for me
I don't like to see those "bootleggers" go free.

The stuff they sell, I'll call it "skee."
God never meant it for you and me.

Its hard to take—you'll climb a tree.
The brand I mean, is "Bonnie Dundee."

It wounds the nerve, and numbs the brain,
And would make a fellow jump in front of a train.

But still we drink it, I don't know why
And will continue to do so until the state goes "dry."

So now I'll bid you a pleasant adieu,
And hope it will be a lesson to you.

I've nothing more to say before I snooze
Only to stay away from that "rot gut" booze.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR TOURNAMENT

Athletic Directors of Indiana and DePauw Universities Will Officiate Here February 24

EIGHT SCHOOLS ENTERED

Plans for the basketball tournament to be held here Friday 24 have been completed. Prof. Masters received word that Egbert Buss, athletic director of DePauw university will assist Ewald O. Stiehm of Indiana university in officiating at the games. Stiehm's presence had been assured sometime ago but the other official was not certain. With these two prominent athletic directors refereeing the games the contests should move along in an orderly manner.

Rushville is out to win the tournament, having already defeated all of the teams entered. The schools coming for the tournament are Shelbyville, Greensburg, Newcastle, Newport, Palestine, Milroy, Morristown, and Connersville.

The local team is working hard this week in preparation for the game here Friday night with Brookville.

HINTS FOR THE NOON MEAL FOR CHILDREN.

There is no reason why the ordinary family dinner should not be suitable for school children or served in a way that adapts it to their needs, according to Farmers' Bulletin 712, School Lunches. The usual first course of meat and vegetables, contains nothing except the meat, which can not be given even to the youngest children. The vegetables, provided they are carefully prepared by simple methods, are specially needed and can often be made attractive to children by being served with a little meat gravy. As a substitute for the meat itself, milk can be provided in the case of the younger children. These articles with the bread and butter, provide most of the food needed.

The dessert course is suitable for children as well as for grown people, unless it consists of rich pastries or puddings. The latter are not considered wholesome for children, if for no other reason than that they are likely to lead to overeating. Such dessert as fruit, fresh or cooked, with cake; cereals with milk or cream, and sugar; custards and custard puddings; gelatin dishes; simple ice cream; water ices and other simple dessert may be given.

Whether or not the family meal is healthful for children depends not only on the food materials selected but also on the way in which they are cooked. Simple methods are to be preferred from the standpoint of health as well as from that of the housekeeper's time. All dishes that are likely to contain overheated and scorched fats, such as food carelessly fried in a pan in a small amount of fat should be avoided. Deep-fat frying is open to fewer objections, since, if properly done, foods will absorb little fat and the fat will not sear. Vegetables cooked in water or in their own juices and seasoned with salt and a little butter or cream are easier to prepare than those that are served with white sauce, scalloped, or cooked in other elaborate ways.

What is said above applies equally to the meals. There is, however, one special precaution that applies to the noon meal when it is hurried. This refers to tough hard foods that are likely to escape proper mastication. It is a mistake to think that the foods given to children must always be soft or finely divided, for children's teeth need exercise quite as much as their muscles do. When time for eating is limited, however, it is well to omit foods that are difficult to chew, and in extreme cases it may be necessary to serve only soft or finely divided foods—sandwiches made from crustless bread with finely chopped fillings, for example. Before resorting to this, however, it is well to make sure that the time for eating and for insistence on good table manners is not unnecessarily cut short. The advantage of putting the meal on the table promptly and of having foods served in individual portions, or at least ready to eat when they are brought to the table, should be kept in mind. To have the meat already sliced and the dessert in cups instead of in one large dish from which individual portions must be served and to follow the same general plan with other foods, may change a hurried meal into one at which there is plenty of time for attention to details essential to health and good manners.

If special lunches different from those prepared for the family in general, are to be given to school children, the following are suggested as bills of fare. They are only typical and many others might be given which might be just as good.

1. Eggs, boiled, coddled; poached; or scrambled; bread and butter; spinach or other greens; cake.
2. Beef stew with vegetables; milk; crisp thin tea biscuits; honey.
3. Dried bean or pea puree; toast; baked apple; cookies.
4. Vegetable-milk soup; swieback; rice with maple sugar and butter or with milk or cream.
5. Potatochowder; crackers; jelly sandwiches.
6. Cold meat; creamed potatoes; peas; bread and butter; frozen custard or plain ice cream and plain cake.
7. Lamb chop; baked potatoes; bread and butter; sliced mixed fruits; cookies.

SAYS FAMILY LIVED HERE

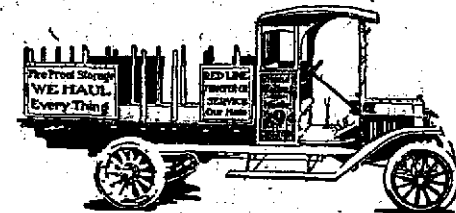

Ewing, Ind., Woman Inquires About Lefflers Here 33 Years Ago

The postmaster has received a letter from Mrs. S. A. Davis of Ewing, Ind., inquiring about the whereabouts of members of a family named Leffler, who lived here about 33 years ago, because she has been informed by the sheriff of Perry county, Illinois, that J. D. (Jack) Leffler, a horse trainer there, was near death from taking bichloride of mercury tablets. Inquiries have been made but no one found who remembers the family. At the time the letter was written, Leffler was not expected to live long. It was thought he took the tablets with suicidal intent.

ANOTHER SNOW IS COMING

The temperature went up to thirty-five above today and offered some relief from the severe cold weather of the last few days, but the weather man dashed any prospects of continued moderate weather by the announcement of unsettled conditions tomorrow. Snow is predicted for this section of the state. The air was damp today and chilled pedestrians. The sun shined brightly this afternoon for the most part but it was cloudy in Rushville the greater part of the day.

for a few minutes in very hot water. This will soften the wax and the candle may be easily pressed down into the candlestick without any trouble.

RECIPES

Already the early spring fruits are being shipped in. Fruits are a necessity whether they are in or out of season. Some new ways of arranging them in tempting dishes follow:

Pineapple Salad.
One can pineapples, one-half dozen oranges, one-half dozen bananas, all cut in small pieces; sprinkle with one cup sugar, let stand four hours. Just before serving pour all the juice off. Then add two cups of marshmallows cut fine. Serve on lettuce leaf. Nuts can be used also. Serve about a dozen people.

Rainbow Salad.
Three boxes of gelatine (raspberry, lemon, orange); make according to directions on box adding one teaspoon sugar and juice of one lemon to each. Pour into separate square pans to set; when stiff cut into cubes about one inch square with sharp knife. Select one of each color, place on lettuce leaf with eight large grapes cut in halves and seeded, one desert spoon of broken pecan nuts. Add whipped cream flavored (some like thick mayonnaise.)

Orange Marmalade.
Wash oranges and lemons, and slice finely into separate dishes. To four parts by weight of the sliced oranges, add one part of sliced lemons. To one part of the fruit mixture, add one and a half parts of water. Boil gently for 30 to 45 minutes. Allow the fruit to cool. To one part of this mixture, add one and a quarter parts of sugar. Boil until the jelly test is obtained. This is about 30 minutes. Place in glasses and seal with paraffin and one lemon will usually make eight glasses.

Next Wednesday, February fourteenth, will be St. Valentine's Day. The crowding of show windows with missives of all colors and all shades of meaning is a herald of the time. Like some other holidays, this one goes back into the morning of the Christian era and loses itself therein. Valentine was a Christian martyr in the third century. How it comes that the sending of love missives is associated with the saint, or the day set apart to his memory is unknown. There was a still more ancient notion that the fourteenth of February was the day when birds chose mates.

Our Salted Peanuts Always Fresh

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water
in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside, no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As scap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

FANS BELIEVE LEONARD READY

Proves Conclusively That he is Entitled to Another Bout With Welsh.

Champ Has Engaged in Only One Long Bout Since Winning Title and Should Thaw Out.

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Feb. 13.—When Benny Leonard, with an injured hand, fought a pair of scraps a couple of weeks ago in this city and punted Phil Bloom and Frankie Callahan all over the same number of rings he proved conclusively to New York fight fans that he is ready for another crack at Champion Welsh.

Efforts undoubtedly will be made to get the two lightweights together in a twenty-round match. If they do mingle over the marathon route it is freely predicted here that Leonard is bound to win.

It is pointed out with considerable seriousness that, even if Leonard didn't lay a glove on the elusive Britisher in the first ten rounds, he would be certain to catch up before the score was over. And when he did! They point to the deadly execution of Leonard's right hand.

In the bout with Bloom Leonard's left hand was absolutely helpless. The best he could do with it was a very poor attempt at guarding. He couldn't stab with it. He made a show of holding it in front of him, but it did little good. But, in no less than three rounds he had Bloom in a very bad way. And Bloom is one of the toughest lightweights in the game.

Frankie Callahan found the same conditions. He discovered that Leonard's left hand was in bad shape and he directed his efforts toward that side of his opponent, with some success. He made a better showing than Bloom, but in the end he was just as badly cut up by the vicious uppercuts and crosses from the Harlem boxer.

Leonard was fast, had an excellent judge of distance, and he stopped numerous heavy blows from the gloves of his opponent.

Such a showing as this entitles Leonard to some consideration from the champion. Welsh has engaged in only one twenty round contest since he won his title. He never has risked it more than that one time in a decision bout. It is time another real match was made for him, and Leonard apparently is the man.

Five Big Things To Remember When Buying A GAS TRACTOR

WORK AND ENDURANCE (NOT PRICE) DETERMINES VALUE:

The design of the tractor, the material of which it is built, and the company building it determines the work it will do, and how long it will last.

CASE HAS BUILT FOR THE FARMER SINCE 1842:

Next year we celebrate our Seventy-fifth Birthday. Three-quarters of a Century—Think of it! We have lived and prospered only because we have made machinery that has made good with its users.

CASE BUILDS 97% OF ALL PARTS USED IN CASE TRACTORS:

As a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, so a tractor is no stronger than its weakest part. With 97% Case-made and the other 3% subject to Case Laboratory tests, you can rely absolutely on the genuineness of every part of Case Tractors.

STANDING OF THE CONCERN WHOSE TRACTOR YOU BUY:

You cannot take the tractor down, piece by piece, and see every part. For most of it you have to take some one's word. Let the reputation of the company be your guide to those things which you cannot see.

WHICH TRACTORS WILL BECOME ORPHANS:

A leading agricultural paper one year ago said—"The good tractors can be counted on the fingers of one hand." There were more than 100 different makes. Now there are even more. With any Case machine you can always be sure of service. Remember our forty-four big branch houses throughout the country. "Better be Safe than Sorry."

A Heritage We Neglect.

etisi-dāfp hla- of H-n tittitāH

All about us, a matter what we be or where, there are wonders and beauties which should afford us any amount of pleasure. Take this morning as I write this chat. From my dressing room window I can see a peaceful world nestled under a beautiful downy white blanket. The trees look like stately sentinels and the bushes and fences fairly sparkle with Nature's gems.

Every day there is some beauty for us to admire. In summer the green flower starred world which seems to sing with the very joy of living. In spring the earth just awakening from its long sleep is most inspiring. And in autumn the whole land doing justice to Nature's paintbrush; and then in winter we have the glorious ermine mantle which envelops all outdoors.

Yet often do we walk through a veritable Paradise without even noticing the surrounding beauty. Our thoughts are far away—probably figuring how we are going to manage our business life, or social life, but seldom dwelling on the beauty about us.

It is usually so, pitiful as it may seem. And there is no remedy except training ourselves to admire things as they come. We may all do this, and our lives will be far better for our silent tribute to Mother Earth and her wonders.

Of course it would be utterly impossible to admire every wonder in the proper way, for they are too numerous to mention and often so obscure that most of us fail to recognize them.

Take the little snowflake—so minute, yet so intricately beautiful. Have you ever examined one under the magnifying glass? Snowflakes are of all sorts of attractive shapes, and perfect to the smallest degree.

Nature itself gives us pleasure and wonders galore, but at the same time it gives us so much to be accomplished in such a short time that we often fail to seize our rightful heritage—an appreciation of the beauties about us!

UTILITY BILL WILL PASS

Railroads Oppose But it Will Likely go Through.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Representative Behmer's bill providing for the abolishment of the public service commission and the creation of a railroad commission and a public utility commission, was expected to be handed down for passage in the house today by Speaker Eschbach.

Railroads are strongly opposed to the bill. It is endorsed by the brotherhoods and labor organizations. The governor, under the proposed law, would appoint the members of the commissions. The railroads fear that it would not be made up of strictly "railroad men" but that the commission would be composed of a representative of the shippers; a representative of the employees and a representative of the railroads.

REAL ESTATE MEN BUCK PLUMBERS

Opposed to Bill Introduced at Their Request to Regulate Sewage
Disposal.

COMMITTEE HAS MEASURE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Real estate men and plumbers are clashing over a bill introduced in the legislature by Representative O'Leary of Terre Haute. The bill empowers the state board of health to condemn any body of water used for either a private or public supply, provided it is found contaminated. The bill also regulates sewage disposal.

The measure was introduced by O'Leary at the request of the state plumbers association. The real estate dealers claim that restrictions imposed by the bill would discourage small property owners from building homes. They also claim that it would increase the cost of constructing houses.

The bill is being considered by the house committee on cities and towns.

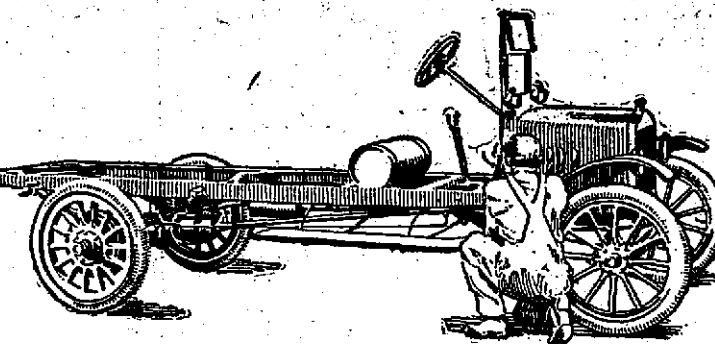

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns
Gray, Faded Hair Dark
and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

TOKIO GROWING.

(By United Press.)

Tokio, Jan. 5.—(By Mail)—In three years Tokio's population has grown from 2,050,126 to 2,288,735, according to a new census report announced today. The present population is houses in 595,897 homes, whereas in 1913 there were only 519,735 households.

Besides being one of the leading population centers of the world, Japan's capital has the distinction of probably covering more ground than any other city. There are no apartments, "flats," or skyscrapers in Japan—earthquakes forbid them—so the little one- and two-story homes must necessarily cover a large area.

English Is Bad Enough.

"Why talk of the difficulty of pronouncing Polish, Austrian, Russian or Roumanian names," says a writer in the San Francisco Chronicle, "when ninety-nine out of every hundred cannot pronounce scores and scores of English names? Just think of Bertie pronounced as Barty, Dilwyn as Dillon, Belvoir as Beaver, Featherstonhaugh as Festunhaw, Dalzell as Dee-el, Ruthven as Rivven. And these are by no means the worst cases!"

Man's Perversity.

If the law were to edict that man and wife should never be together for more than six months in the year it would be broken every day and men and women would stand hunger and stripes to come together for twelve months in twelve; if love of home were made a crime a family life would arise more touching than anything Queen Victoria ever dreamed.—W. L. George in Atlantic.

Happily Disposed Of.

"Mr. Beats," the grocer said wearily, "I ask you for the last time, will you pay that $20 you owe me?"

"For the last time?" Beats replied cheerfully. "I'm glad to hear you say that, old man. You know, I was getting awfully tired of hearing you ask that foolish question!" — New York Times.

DEVIL GETS FIRST BLOW OF CAMPAIGN

Preliminaries to Big Revival in New York Start With Holding of Paper Meetings.

CITY DIVIDED INTO BLOCKS

New York, Feb. 13.—The devil got an awful wallop in the first round of the Billy Sunday preliminary campaign here today. When the Old Boy picked up his spiked tail and his pitchfork and started out from Broadway on his daily round he found prayer meetings going on in every block that houses Gotham's twelve million souls.

Beginning today these "cottage" prayer meetings will be held twice a week until Sunday's arrival April 1. One of the residences opened for the neighborhood prayer meetings in the Plaza section today was that of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller both are deeply interested in the success of the Sunday campaign. The city has been divided into twenty sections and "prayer blocks" have been systematically organized. The burden of the prayers prayed is for the salvation of "backslidden" Christians.

The giraffe is a high, narrow animal found in circuses and delirium tremens.

It has a ten-story neck and no use for it. We often wonder why is a giraffe's neck, anyhow. The giraffe probably wonders too. It's so long the poor thing could choke to death at one end and never know it at the other. And it keeps his head so far from the ground that every time he looks down he's afraid he'll fall off. But let's not hold the giraffe to strictly to account for his neck.

He probably started out to be a boa constrictor and forgot about it. The only person that ever envied a giraffe was a small boy on the wrong side of the fence at a ball game.

BACK HOUSING BILLS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Representatives of the American Brotherhood, a fraternal organization, are in Indianapolis working in the interests of the good housing bills which have been presented to the legislature—in the senate by C. A. Erskine and in the house by Representative Eisterhold. The bill provides for the condemnation of buildings found to be unfit for habitation, by the boards of health.

RUSE OF A CHINAMAN.

Clever Way He Got Around the Law and Gained His Case.

A cemetery is the one sacred spot in China. To desecrate such a place is the worst of crimes. Some years since there lived in a village on the plain of the Yellow river a man called Tu. His little farm furnished him with a comfortable living, but nothing more. Like all farms in that part of China, there was no fence to separate his fields from those of his neighbors. One of these neighbors was a rascal, who, knowing Mr. Tu to be of mild disposition, resolved to impose upon him by plowing a few furrows of Mr. Tu's land and thus incorporating it with his own. This act did not pass unobserved, but Mr. Tu was cautious as well as mild. He knew that litigation came high and was uncertain. "Better," he said to himself, "to endure the wrong than to suffer loss of both land and money."

The next year the neighbor repeated the experiment and plowed up a few more furrows. Again Mr. Tu consulted with himself and determined, as previously, that law was too expensive a luxury for him.

The neighbor, encouraged by this complaisance, continued to add to his own acres at the other's expense. At length he became so bold as to incorporate in this way the family cemetery, where were buried Mr. Tu's ancestors.

Then Mr. Tu saw the chance for which he had been waiting. By plowing up this cemetery the neighbor had committed sacrilege. The only difficulty was that the punishment was so severe that it might not be possible, unless he was careful, to get his neighbor punished at all. For the law was that if the magistrate should take notice of the suit he would have to send up a report to his superiors at the capital of the province and request that proper punishment be inflicted upon himself, seeing that so heinous a crime had been committed in the district for which he was responsible.

Accordingly Mr. Tu brought the matter before the magistrate in a way that did not involve that official. He brought accusation against his father, who was dead, for having moved his grave off his son's land to that of the encroaching neighbor instead of abiding in the cemetery where he properly belonged.

The Chinese love humor and greatly admire shrewdness. When, therefore, the magistrate read this amazing document he smiled with genuine appreciation of Mr. Tu's cleverness, called up the offending neighbor, made him restore all the land he had appropriated and punished him with due severity for his robbery.—Youth's Companion.

BETTY AND HER DADDY

It's two in the morning and the house is cold. Out of the darkness comes a cry—

"Daddie Daddie! Oh, Daddie!"

And Daddie is up. He doesn't mind the cold if the little hand that pats him is warm.

That was ten years ago, happy, short years, working for the baby and her mother.

It is two in the morning again—and out of an awful darkness comes the cry—

"Daddie! Daddie! Oh, Daddie!"

But Daddie will never jump up again—and he doesn't know that Betty's hands are warm over his cold ones.

The Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Mass., cannot replace Daddie, but they can provide for a monthly reminder of him. Come and talk it over.
